JUNE-JULY
ARTICLES
DUE BY
MAY 12, 2016

Would you like to see your writing published? Please submit your stories, poems, Descendants' articles, Products' ideas, etc. to us at the Topics. We would love to read them!

Hello, Residents. Here are some topics that are important for you.

The planter on the right side of the entrance into the clubhouse is scheduled to be removed sometime after May 1. The front entrance to the clubhouse will be closed for at least three days. Residents will have to use another entrance to get into the clubhouse when deconstruction begins. After the planter is removed, we may have to hire another contractor to finish the stucco work on the two exposed walls.

As the "Pepper Busters" began clearing invasive species from the common ground behind Manchester Court, we have discovered very large Laurel Oaks, Strangler Figs, and Mulberry Trees in this area. Bill Dunson, an environmental expert, has told us that these rare trees are some of the largest in Sarasota County. In order for the residents to enjoy and appreciate the new found area, a narrow primitive trail is being discussed.

Special thanks goes to Bob Wright and Rich Rath for completing the audit of TW accounts.

Their report includes the following statement: "The records and schedules for TW have been well-maintained and accurate. Terry has done a great job of organizing all the reports for the past year." Thanks to all involved in this audit.

Lastly, I'm sorry to announce that Britt Harris, our custodian for the past seven years, left us on April 22. Britt has been an outstanding employee who could always be counted on to be at the clubhouse at 6 am every day to do his job. In addition to his great attendance record, Britt assisted residents with small tasks like helping with the TV, as well as unloading residents' cars. Most importantly, he did this with a smile on his face. Britt, we will miss you and we wish you the very best on your move to Michigan. We have already hired a replacement for Britt. The new custodian is Ken Kuiros. Ken is well-known to TW residents, as his parents have lived here for many years. Ken will be an asset to the property management team, and I am looking forward to working with him.

The Board extends its sincerest wish that all snowbirds have a healthy and happy summer, and that our full-timers have a safe and fun experience here as well. See you all when you return.

TW ACTIVITIES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

DETAILS

Doreen Barrett

There has been a publishing change in our Tangerine Topics. Because of the lack of activities during the summer months here, it has been decided that we will have fewer issues. As a result, we have combined June/July and August/September which will give us ten issues for a year. So, if you would still like to receive a copy in the mail, make sure you place some stamped envelopes on the side of the Topics box on the counter of the lobby. Toni Johnson will send you your copies. Also, you can easily view these issues at www.tangerinewoods.com and click on newsletter. I received an article from Ken Wall concerning the pool which didn't appear in April's issue. He requests that residents read the rules posted on the pool and inform their guests as well. In particular, he was concerned about the shower before entering rule, the no glass containers rule, sunrise to sunset hours, and returning furniture and umbrellas to original positions. Let's all help Ken keep our pool the wonderful place it is! Summer is fast approaching, so we hope you have a healthy, safe, and fun experience while you are away.

BOCCE 2016

Art Napolitan

In a best of three series, Bill Brown and Jim English won the honor of being our 2016 Champions with Jim and Celia Connolly coming in second. There was a great turnout of league players, TW residents and guests. We were treated to excellent competition and sportsmanship. Shots were made that amazed everyone. Congratulations to both teams; you provided all the spectators with a Fun-Filled Day.

Our champions received their trophies at the Bocce/Shuffleboard luncheon on March 24. A special thanks to everyone who stepped up to help keep everything running smoothly throughout the day. We also want to acknowledge the guys who helped maintain our court all season long, our scorekeeper, and our referees during the Championship Tournament Series.

2017 sign-up sheets have been posted on the wall in the card room. You may also sign up by email. Send your name, preferred day and telephone number to aanap@yahoo.com. We play every Tuesday through Friday starting at 9:00 am from January until the end of March. We always have a few teams who do not return so if you are interested, sign up as soon as possible. We currently have 106 TW residents playing Bocce. I would also request you notify us if you will be unable to play next season through email, letter or by phone at 248-681-8486.

LOOKING FOR TENNIS PLAYERS

Carmen Lowden

- ◆ If you enjoy fresh air and sunshine—You might be a tennis player.
- ◆ If you work out your frustration by swinging at something—You might be a tennis player.
- ◆ If you have yet to find your sport—You might be a tennis player.
- ◆ If you enjoy being around enthusiastic (and sometimes goofy) people—You might be a tennis player.
- ◆ If you are a TW resident looking for a good time—You might be a tennis player.

So skilled or unskilled, there is a place in TW tennis for you. Come learn basics or teach the rest of us a few new tricks. If you are interested in joining us, please contact: Cathy O'Neill at 941-475-6210

THE TW BOOK CLUB

Ann Landry

And, yes, it was a party in April!! We said our goodbyes as the season ended. We chatted over the many good books we had read this year, and listed many good books we want to read and discuss next season. For those of you who want to get a head start over the summer, the following is the result of a long list which was narrowed down by the members.

November 17-The Summer Before the War by Simonson
Facilitator-Ann Landry

December-The Giver by Lowry Facilitator-Audre Sautter

January-Fates and Furies by Groff Facilitator-C. Connolly

February-Beach Music by Conroy

March-A Man Called Ove by Backman

I will put a complete list of the suggested books in an upcoming issue of the Topics. For now, put on your reading glasses, curl up with a good book, and mark your 2016-17 calendar for 3:00 pm on the third Thursday of the month.

THANKS MOM

By Eralah Burdic

Every child wishes for that just perfect mom,
the kind who does everything right and never anything wrong.
She must say the right things and be perfectly dressed,
keep a clean house and be happy, never ever depressed.
It's her job to make sure her family feels blessed,
each member made happy with egos caressed.
This all sounds very nice, what a lovely world it would be,
if every mother was perfect, meeting every child's need.
But moms are just human and make mistakes on the way,
lives filled with trials like ours, to deal with every day.
How can we ask them to be more than they're able,
when not a single one can wear that perfect mom label.
Try to look at your mom from a new point of view,
as you grow older and wiser, you'll see her anew.
Each mother is different, with good points and bad,
praise the fine things, talk about what makes you unhappy or sad.
If you pray for your mom, ask God to make your heart glad,
for good memories she's given, the good times that you've had.
Every mother is special, precious and select,
for this very reason, give her honor and respect.
Love her like you did when you were so tender and small,
because she certainly hasn't stopped loving you through it all.
So, God bless our dear moms, the ones we came through,
and we should forever be saying, "Mom, I thank you!"

WHO KNEW?

Ann Landry

How many of you have spent a morning walking our beaches—all hunkered over—in search of shark's teeth? A large shark may produce 20,000 teeth during its lifetime. Who knew?

Yes, we have a resident who played baseball in high school, college, and in the US Army. He arrived at Ft. Sill with his glove tucked under his arm. He tried out and became a pitcher with the Ft. Sill Artillery Battalion Baseball Team. He was the only nonprofessional on the team. His teammates included one major league player and the rest were minor league players. The All-Star Army Tournament took place in Colorado Springs. Billy Martin (who later became manager of the Yankees) came to watch and loaned his car to our very own Neil Sheehan and his wife, Jean. Who knew?

In 1878, William Goff loaded up all of his worldly goods and his family on a schooner for the long journey from Tampa to Lemon Bay-Englewood's first settler. Who knew?

WINE 'N WALK

Carmen Lowden

After a blow from Mother Nature, we held our second annual Wine 'N Walk on March 31. Professor Bill Dunson led educational walks in the morning, explaining the many wonderful aspects of our trail. In the afternoon, a variety of walks were led by Liz Summers and Carmen Lowden. The Wine 'N Walk portion of the day brought out between fifty and sixty TW residents, and we spent a couple of hours visiting with friends and enjoying the beauty of our trail. We received many positive comments on the signs that were added to the trail this year. The season is over, but we are already working on plans for next year. We can always use more volunteers to help with the Trail, so if you feel the urge to play in the dirt, please contact me at cmldowden@gmail.com.

CHAIR AEROBICS CHANGE

Beginning Tuesday, May 3, Chair Aerobics' schedule will be changed. We will have the class on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 9:00. Tuesday's class consists of stretching or core exercises in a chair. Thursday's class is more challenging with three parts- Aerobic, Weights, and Balancing and Standing exercises.

LAZY DAZE NEWS

The landscaping crew has completed its transformation project in the area along TW Blvd. south of the entrance to the RV lot. There is now one attractive grassy area bound on one side by palm trees and attractive stone settings at the base of each tree, and on the other side by picturesque oleander bushes. The power washing crew did a fine job on the two Englewood Water District white fence enclosures along TW Blvd. The crew also started the monumental task of cleaning the curbing along TW Blvd. It is appropriate to mention by name the members of two crews. The Swimming Pool crew consists of one member, Ken Wall. Ken is worthy of special recognition for his diligence and special care to be sure that our pool area is always well-maintained and looks so attractive. Last but not least, the hard-working can crushing crew, Joe Santoro, Ken Rosier, Don Griffin, Dave Cade, and Jim Richards, deserve to be recognized for the special effort they put forth every Monday, and often additional times as well. A thank you to our residents for being so conscientious in transporting your aluminum cans to the RV lot. A very small but active Lazy Daze group will be working every Monday during the summer. A high priority is to clean up any debris caused by the many rain storms we have then. Please report to the Manager's office for clean up on your property.

AND SO THE SEASON ENDS

Carmen Lowden

The TW Tennis Season is over. We won a few, we lost a few. Actually, the Men's Group came in 3rd in our League, so congratulations to them. Our end of the year tournament was held on April 2 and 3. We saw some very good matches; some lasting almost two hours. This year's Tournament winners were:

- ◆ Men's Singles-Lloyd Harris
- ◆ Men's Doubles-Bill Burke and Karl Spandau
- ◆ Mixed Doubles-Ghislain Cyr and Lee Dees
- ◆ Women's Doubles-Carol Kassimer and Ghislaine Cyr

We had a lot of fun this year and are already planning for next season. So if you have ever wanted to play or want to start playing again, contact Cathy O'Neill at 941-475-6210.

WATCHING OVER YOU

By Jean Flewelling

Sitting on a cloud in the sky, looking down at a pristine lake, surrounded by tall, pine trees, she saw waves gently rippling on the rocks along the shore. It was a peaceful place, a silent place, a place to dream, a place to rest. Her spirit soared at the memory of this place. With a tear in her eye, she called out, "Look up, please look up. I'm here, up here watching over you. I will never leave you. Look up, I'm here."

A little girl playing by the shore looked up to the sky.

"Daddy, come and see, look up, don't you see her up there?"

Her father picked the little girl up, holding her in his arms, he replied, "It must be your Nana watching over you."

"That's right," the little girl replied. "She promised she would never leave us. When I hear thunder in the sky, I won't be afraid. I'll know it's Nana bowling with the angels. When it rains, she is washing her wings and painting her toenails, and when it snows, she heads south with all the other snowbirds."

A tear rolled down her father's cheek. Looking up he said, "Yes, we will always remember Nana."

A tear fell from the sky.

THE DIRECTOR OF DIRT

Ann Landry

We will miss you, Britt. Yes, you have been the TW Custodian for the last seven years. As you call yourself The Director of Dirt, you have been so much more to so many people. You provide assistance with loading up borrowed tables and chairs, and you always have the knack of making that temperamental video-sound system work!

Britt is returning to Detroit-home to two of his sisters-and most importantly, the home of his daughter who will shortly give birth to Britt's first grandson.

When we weren't discussing the importance of family, we seemed to be discussing food. So, for those of us who have never lived in Detroit, or anywhere else in Michigan, Britt gave rave reviews to the Chicken Shack, a chain which specializes in broasted chicken, broasted potatoes, and the best-ever cole slaw.

We wish you well, Britt! Good eating! Have fun in your new role as "Pop!"

Editor's Note: Britt was a great help to me each time I tried to turn on the TV/Video system in the clubhouse. He would always say it was his vibes that got it to work. Actually, all he would do was stand there and look at the TV, and lo and behold, it would do what it was supposed to do! I also had many conversations with him about movies. He loved movies and had a fantastic memory of the various plots. I will really miss him, and I wish him the best of luck in Detroit.
