3.3 Assets Held in Trust. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association and the proceeds thereof shall be held in trust for the members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation and the Association Bylaws.

3.4 Emergency Powers. In the event of an emergency as defined herein, the Board of Directors may exercise the emergency powers described herein, and any other powers authorized by the provisions of Section 718.1265, Florida Statutes, and Sections 617.0207 and 617.0303, Florida Statutes, all as subsequently amended from time to time. For purposes of this Section 3.4 only, an emergency exists during a period of time that the Condominium, or the immediate geographic area in which the Condominium is located, is subjected to: a state of emergency declared by civil or law enforcement authorities; a hurricane watch or warning as issued by a governmental authority; a partial or complete evacuation order issued by civil or law enforcement authorities; the declaration of a federal or state "disaster area" status; or catastrophe, whether natural or manmade, which seriously damages, or threatens to seriously damage the physical existence of the Condominium. During an emergency as defined herein, the Board of Directors may exercise the following emergency powers:

(a) Conduct Board meetings and membership meetings with notice given as is practicable. Such notice may be given in any practicable manner, including publication, telephone, radio, United States mail, email, the Internet, public service announcements, and conspicuous posting on the condominium property or any other means the Board deems reasonable under the circumstances. Notice of Board decisions may be communicated as provided in this Section. The directors in attendance at such a Board meeting (if more than one (1) director) shall constitute a quorum.

(b) Cancel and reschedule any Association Board, membership or committee meeting.

(c) Name as interim assistant officers persons who are not directors, which assistant officers shall have the same authority as the executive officers to whom they are assistants during the state of emergency to accommodate the incapacity or unavailability of any officer of the Association.

(d) Relocate the Association's principal office or designate alternative principal offices.

(e) Enter into agreements with local counties and municipalities to assist counties and municipalities with debris removal.

(f) Implement a disaster plan before or immediately following the event for which a state of emergency is declared which may include, but is not limited to, electricity; water, sewer, or security systems; or air conditioners.

(g) Based upon advice of emergency management officials or upon the advice of licensed professionals retained by the Board, determine any portion of the condominium property unavailable for entry or occupancy by unit owners, family members, tenants, guests, agents, or invitees to protect the health, safety, or welfare of such persons.

(h) Require the evacuation of the condominium property in the event of a mandatory evacuation order in the locale in which the Condominium is located. Should any unit owner or other occupant of the Condominium fail or refuse to evacuate the condominium property where the Board has required evacuation, the Association shall be immune from liability or injury to persons or property arising from such failure or refusal.

(i) Based upon advice of emergency management officials or upon the advice of licensed professionals retained by the Board, determine whether the condominium property can be safely inhabited or occupied. However, such determination is not conclusive as to any determination of habitability pursuant to the Declaration.

(j) Mitigate further damage, including taking action to contract for the removal of debris and to prevent or mitigate the spread of mold, mildew or fungus by removing and disposing of wet drywall, insulation, carpet, carpet pad, baseboards, air ducts, cabinetry, any and all personal property or belongings of the resident or owner, including but not limited to furniture, clothes, mattresses, and all other fixtures on or within the condominium property, even if the unit owner is obligated by the Declaration or law to insure or replace those fixtures and to remove personal property from a unit.

(k) Contract, on behalf of any unit owner or owners, for items or services for which the owners are otherwise individually responsible for, but which are necessary to prevent further damage to the condominium property. In such event, the unit owner or owners on whose behalf the Board has contracted are responsible for reimbursing the Association for the actual costs of the items or services, and the Association may use its assessment and claim of lien authority provided by Section 718.116, Florida Statutes and in the Declaration of Condominium to enforce collection of the charges. Without limitation, such items or services may include the drying of units, the boarding or other enclosure of broken or damaged windows, sliding glass doors, exterior doors, and the replacement of damaged air conditioners or air handlers to provide climate control in the units or other portions of the condominium property.

(l) Regardless of any provision to the contrary and even if such authority does not specifically appear in the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, or Association Bylaws, the Association's Board of Directors may levy one or more special assessments without a vote of the owners.

(m) Without unit owners' approval, borrow money and pledge Association assets as collateral to fund emergency repairs and carry out the duties of the Association when operating funds are insufficient. This paragraph does not limit the general authority of the Association to borrow money, subject to such restrictions as are contained in the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, or Association Bylaws.

(n) Corporate action taken in good faith to meet the emergency needs of the Association or its unit owners shall bind the Association; have the rebuttable presumption of being reasonable and necessary; and may not be used to impose liability on a director, officer, or employee. An officer, director, or employee acting in good faith and in accordance with this Section 3.4 is only liable for willful misconduct.

The special powers authorized above in this Section 3.4 shall be limited to the time period reasonably necessary to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the Association and the unit owners and the unit owners' family members, tenants, guests, agents, or invitees and shall be reasonably necessary to mitigate further damage and make emergency repairs to the condominium property.

4. MEMBERS.

4.1 Members. The members of the Association are all of the record owners of units in the Condominium. After termination of the Condominium, the members shall consist of those who are members at the time of such termination, their successors, and assigns.

4.2 Change of Membership. After receiving approval of the Association Board of Directors required by the Declaration of Condominium, change of membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida, a deed or other instrument establishing record title to a Unit in the Condominium and the delivery to the Association of a copy of such instrument. The Board may, in its sole discretion, require a member to provide it a certified copy of the Deed or other instrument. The owner designated by such instrument thus becomes a member of the Association and the membership of the prior owner is terminated.

4.3 Limitation on Transfer of Shares of Assets. A member cannot assign, hypothecate, or transfer in any manner his or her share in the funds and assets of the Association, except as an appurtenance to the member's Unit.

4.4 Voting. Each Unit is entitled to one (1) vote regardless of the number of owners. The Declaration of Condominium and Bylaws shall state the manner of exercising voting rights.

5. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

5.1 Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall manage the affairs of the Association. The Bylaws shall state the number of Directors, which may in no event be less than five (5) or more than seven (7) Directors. A Director must fulfill all requirements of eligibility provided in the Declaration of Condominium, Bylaws, these Articles and by law. A Director has a fiduciary duty to the members and to the Association.

5.2 Election of Directors. The membership shall elect Directors at the annual meetings of the members, in the manner determined by the Association Bylaws. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the Association Bylaws and according to the Condominium Act.

6. OFFICERS. The Association officers shall manage the affairs and operation of the Association as directed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall elect officers at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the members of the Association. Officers serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Each officer has a fiduciary duty to the members and to the Association

7. INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 Indemnity. The Association shall indemnify each Director and officer and each committee member of the Association serving the Association at its specific request against all expenses and all liabilities, including but not limited to trial and appellate counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been a Director, officer of the Association or by reason of his serving or having served the Association at its request on a committee, whether or not he is a Director, officer or is serving on a committee at the time such expenses and liabilities are incurred, except when the Director, officer or committee member is adjudged guilty (or a withholding of adjudication is entered after a plea of guilty or no contest) of an act or omission to act which is material to the cause of action and which constitutes:

(a) a violation of the criminal law, unless the Director, officer or committee member had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;

(b) a transaction from which the Director, officer or member derived an improper personal benefit; or

(c) willful misfeasance or malfeasance or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Condominium Association in a proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a member of the Association;

7.2 Defense. To the extent that a director, officer, or committee member of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 7.1 above, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

7.3 Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer, or committee member to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized by this Article 7.

7.4 Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article 7 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members, or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, or committee member and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

7.5 Insurance. The Association has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Association, or a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

8. BYLAWS. The Association Bylaws may be amended in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

9. AMENDMENTS. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the following manner:

9.1 Notice and Proposal. The text of a proposed amendment to these Articles of Incorporation shall be included in or with the notice of any membership meeting at which a proposed amendment will be considered. The Board of Directors or at least twenty percent (20%) of the Association's eligible voting interests may propose an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation.

9.2 Approval. An amendment to these Articles of Incorporation must be approved by a majority of the Association's Board of Directors and by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the Association's eligible voting interests.

9.3 Limitation on Amendments. No amendment shall be made which conflicts with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium.

9.4 Certification. The Association shall file a copy of each amendment with the Florida Secretary of State and record it in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida, together with a duly executed Certificate of Amendment.

10. TERM. The term of the Association shall be perpetual, unless sooner terminated according to law.

11. SUBSCRIBERS. The names and addresses of the original subscribers of these Articles of Incorporation are as follows:

13. MISCELLANEOUS.

13.1 Definitions. All terms used in these Articles of Incorporation have the same meaning, to the extent applicable, as set forth in the Association's Declaration of Condominium and the Florida Condominium Act (Chapter 718, Florida Statutes), all as subsequently amended or renumbered from time to time.

13.2 Conflicts. In the event of a conflict, the Condominium Documents shall govern in the following order: (1) Declaration of Condominium, (2) Articles of Incorporation, (3) Bylaws, and (4) Rules and Regulations.

13.3 Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability in whole or in part of any covenant or restriction or any article, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word or other provision of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Rules shall not affect the remaining portions hereof.

13.4 Headings. The headings of paragraphs or sections herein are for convenience purposes only, and shall not be used to alter or interpret the provisions herein.

2.5 Electronic Transmission and Broadcast Notice. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, notice of meetings of the Board of Directors, membership meetings (except membership meetings to recall directors), and committee meetings may be given by electronic transmission to those members who consent to receive notice by electronic transmission. In lieu of or in addition to the physical posting of notice of any meeting on the condominium property, the Board of Directors may, by reasonable rule, adopt a procedure for conspicuously posting and repeatedly broadcasting the notice and the agenda on a closed-circuit cable television system serving the condominium property. However, if broadcast notice is used in lieu of a notice posted physically on the condominium property, the notice and agenda must be broadcast at least four (4) times every broadcast hour of each day that a posted notice is otherwise required under this Article. When broadcast notice is provided, the notice and agenda must be broadcast in a manner and for a sufficient continuous length of time so as to allow an average reader to observe the notice and read and comprehend the entire content of the notice and agenda.

2.6 Written Action by Members. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the members, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of members, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the required percentage of members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such owner action by written agreement shall comply with the procedural requirements of Section 617.0701(4), Florida Statutes.

2.7 Quorum. The members, present in person or by proxy, holding a majority of the eligible votes of the entire membership which may be cast at a meeting shall constitute a quorum at such meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of members, a majority of the members present (in person or by proxy) may adjourn the meeting from time to time to a future date. A voting interest or consent right allocated to a unit or member which has been suspended by the Association may not be counted towards the total number of voting interests necessary to constitute a quorum, the number of voting interests required to conduct an election, or the number of voting interests required to approve an action under the Condominium Act or pursuant to the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

2.8 Waiver. Notice of membership meetings may be waived by a member before or after a membership meeting. A member waives any defect or lack of notice by attending a meeting, except when that attendance is for the expressed purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called.

2.9 Voting Rights. At any meeting of members, the owners of units shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each unit owned.

2.10 Voting for Units Jointly Owned. If a Unit is owned by one person, the right to vote shall be established by the record title to the Unit. If a Unit is owned by more than one person, then any of the Owners of the Unit may cast the full vote for it, provided that if more than one Owner of a Unit shall seek to vote for the Unit and the votes conflict, no vote shall be counted for the Unit in that instance and further provided that if a ballot is provided for a vote at a meeting it shall be provided only to the first Owner of the Unit who claims it.

2.11 Voting for Units Held by a Corporation, Partnership or Trust. If a Unit is owned by a corporation, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Unit shall be designated by a voting certificate signed by the president or vice president of the corporation and attested by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation. If the Unit is owned by a partnership, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Unit shall be designated by a voting certificate signed by a partner. If the Unit is owned by a trust, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Unit shall be designated by a voting certificate signed by the trustee of the trust. All such voting certificates must be filed with the Association. Such voting certificate shall be valid until revoked, until superseded by a subsequent certificate or until a change in the ownership of the Unit concerned. A certificate designating the person entitled to cast the vote conferred by Unit ownership may be revoked by any owner of a Unit. If a voting certificate is not on file for a unit owned by multiple owners, a corporation, partnership or trust, then the vote for that Unit shall not be considered in determining a quorum nor for any other purpose.

2.12 Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by written proxy substantially complying with the Condominium Act. Proxies must be filed with the Association prior to the membership meeting or reconvened membership meeting. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time at the pleasure of the unit owner executing it. Proxies in no event shall be used in electing the members of the Board of Directors. Proxy questions relating to waiving or reducing the funding of reserves or using existing reserve funds for purposes other than purposes for which the reserves were intended shall contain the following statement in capitalized, bold letters in a font size larger than any other used on the face of the proxy ballot: WAIVING OF RESERVES, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, OR ALLOWING ALTERNATIVE USES OF EXISTING RESERVES MAY RESULT IN UNIT OWNER LIABILITY FOR PAYMENT OF UNANTICIPATED SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS REGARDING THOSE ITEMS. An executed telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proxy-giver, or a photographic, photo static, facsimile, electronic or equivalent reproduction of a proxy is a sufficient proxy. Owners may retroactively cure any alleged defect in a proxy by signing a statement ratifying the owner's intent to cast a proxy vote. The use of proxies is to be liberally construed.

2.13 Vote Required to Make Decisions. When a quorum is obtained at any membership meeting, the vote of a majority of the members present in person or by proxy shall decide any question brought before the meeting, unless the Declaration, these Bylaws or any applicable statute provides otherwise, in which event the vote prescribed by the Declaration, the Bylaws or such statute shall control.
